

This Week in Baseball

The PMBA M&M Meat Shops Mosquito team captured the Niagara South Interlock baseball championship on Aug 17th by defeating Welland #2 in a Best of 3 series.

Game 3 was an intense, nail-biting thriller, wherein the lead went back and forth, inning to inning, until Pelham's bats could just not be stopped. Malyssa Cimato and Sarah Saldutto were strong at the plate. In the bottom of the 7th, however, Welland came back, but Pelham was able to hold their lead after some awesome plays. Ryan Dykstra threw to Noah Wouthuis at home for a tag on the runner, Ryan tagged the lead runner at Short Stop, and the final toss by Zach Baltrusiunas to Brock Pellow at 1st for the 3rd and final out.
